

KNOWLEDGE MEDIA DESIGN

* Lectures on Digital Media Research and Innovation at the University of Toronto: Part I

☞ Jan. 15 - Dec. 10, 2009: Bahen Centre for IT, 40 St. George St.

ENABLING ENHANCED COMMUNICATIONS AND COMMERCE

Thursday, Jan. 15, 4:10 p.m. BA 1130

“““ Social Networks Meet Computer Networks

Barry Wellman-Sociology

“““ Spending Together: Commerce in a Socially Networked World

Mark Fox-Mechanical and Industrial Engineering

LEVELING THE PLAYING FIELD

Tuesday, Feb. 10, 4:10 p.m. BA 1210

“““ Leveling the Playing Field for Citizen intelligence

Ron Deibert-Political Science

“““ Leveling the Playing Field for Optimal Health

Alex Jadad-Global eHealth Innovation

SUPPORTING LEARNING AND TEACHING

Thursday, Feb. 26, 4:10 p.m. BA1130

“““ New Ways of Teaching and Learning with Technology

Jim Slotta-Curriculum, Teaching & Learning (OISE/UT)

“““ Digital Communications Technologies: Educational and Social Practices

Clare Brett-Curriculum, Teaching & Learning (OISE/UT)

“““ Technologies for Higher Education

Jim Hewitt-Curriculum, Teaching & Learning (OISE/UT)

SUPPORTING ENHANCED COGNITION AND STEMMING COGNITIVE DECLINE

Thursday, Mar. 12, 4:10 p.m. BA1130

“““ Technology for Cognitive Support

Ron Baecker-Computer Science

“““ Video Games as Tools for Research in Cognition

Ian Spence-Psychology

☞ These events will be webcast live and archived using ePresence Interactive Media. Instructions on accessing the webcasts may be found at <http://www.kmdi.utoronto.ca/>.

* The Knowledge Media Design Institute is grateful to the sponsors of this series: the Department of Computer Science (major sponsor), the iSchool at Toronto, the Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering

Computer Science
UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
FACULTY OF INFORMATION

